OUT IS IN: NATIONAL PARK & REC MONTH JULY EVENTS

Since 1985, America has celebrated July as the nation's official Park and Recreation Month. The 2014 theme is OUT is IN.

The focus will be on setting trends instead of following them, making 2014 the year people go OUTside, change their OUTlook, and get INinvolved in their community.

Armour Hills is going to join the party. We'll host three neighborhood events as part of the 2014 Parks & Recreation celebration.

"Out is In" so Get OUTside and join IN the fun!

Out is In! National Park & Recreation Month

Picnic in a (Pocket) Park

Sunday, July 13th, 4:30 PM | 66th Terrace and Edgevale

Have you ever visited a pocket park? Pack a picnic and come explore our very own neighborhood secret. Walk, bike, or bring your wagon to the park for an afternoon of old-fashioned fun near the corner of 66th Terrace and Edgevale. You might find a baseball game or mini-World Cup in progress, so bring your favorite games and PLAY!

Chalk the Park

Wednesday, July 23rd | Arbor Villa Park

Calling all neighborhood artists! Whether you're an Impressionist or prefer a more modern style, sidewalk chalk will be the name of the game all day on the 23rd. Find a bucket or bring your own, but come help decorate Arbor Villa Park for one day. (Dry chalk only please, no spray chalk or hair spray/setting agents on the sidewalks.)

Zoomobile

Wednesday, July 30, 6:00 PM | Arbor Villa Park

We'll wrap up the month-long-celebration with a visit by the Kansas City Zoomobile. Zoo staff will bring a few animal friends to Arbor Villa Park for a 45 minute presentation. Bring a lawn chair or blanket and let us "Bring the Zoo to You!" (Please, no pets at this event.)
